

We Believe Together Mothers & Daughters Can Reach Gender Equality

The mother-daughter relationship is central to women's fight for economic and social equality!

Listen to distinguished experts discuss the power the mother-daughter relationship has to challenge sexist beliefs and harmful cultural and generational patterns, and create families, workplaces, and communities that strengthen and celebrate women.

March 16, 2018
Salvation Army Auditorium

8.30 am – 10.00 am
221 E 52nd Street, New York City

Distinguished Speakers

Rosjke Hasseldine MS Mother-Daughter Therapist, author of The Mother-Daughter Puzzle: A New Generational Understanding of the Mother-Daughter Relationship
(Moderator)

Lois A. Herman WUNRN Coordinator, Women's UN Report Network

Paula Caplan Ph.D Harvard Psychologist, author of The New Don't Blame Mother: Mending the Mother-Daughter Relationship

Celia Michaels Video Editor, photojournalist documenting her mother Ruth Gruber's work as Europe and Middle East correspondent

Carole Fontaine Ph.D Professor of Biblical Theology and History, WUNRN Research Associate, author of With Eyes of Flesh: The Bible, Gender and Human Rights

Sponsors

Lys Anzia

Lois A. Herman

Rosjke Hasseldine

