

ONLINE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN & CYBER BULLYING
Virtual Webinar – Thursday November 5, 2020
15.30 UK 16.30 -17.30 CET

Online is the new front line for violence against women and girls, and it has increased exponentially during COVID-19 and the lockdowns. Online violence is an epicenter of risk, intersectional and intergenerational, and compounding multiple forms of violence against women and girls, including trafficking.

This WUNRN organized webinar highlights the increase in Violence Against Women & Girls Online & Cyberbullying, building on the work of the UN Special Rapporteur on Violence Against Women and WUNRN EU advocacy. We continue to strengthen advocacy on violence against women and girls to Europe and beyond, through the European Parliament's Human Rights Sub- Committee, APPG PDRH UK, GREVIO CoE and invite you to the discussion and analysis presented by our panelists and women's WIDE + Network.
